

The stations that are owned by Sinclair Broadcasting use the public airwaves and are required to serve the public interest by law.

The fact that they are requiring their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary which they are falsely claiming to be "news" is a clear violation of law and of the public trust.

It is critical that the FCC stand up to this clear and premeditated violation of our laws and warn Sinclair Broadcasting that if they go through with this that they will lose their licenses.

At the very minimum, if they insist on airing this anti-Kerry piece they must spend an equal amount of time airing a film like "Going Up River" or "Fahrenheit 9/11". All three of these are available to anyone who wants to purchase them and view them in their own home and as such by definition do not constitute "news". "Stolen Honor" is merely a one hour "Swift Boat Veterans for Truth" ad, and this group has been exposed by numerous investigative journalists as a group of liars.

Sincerely,

Sheila M. Reynolds
